

Commander Jordan is a 1995 graduate of Tulane University, where he earned his commission through the Navy Reserve Officer Training Corps program. He holds a Master of Business Administration degree from Regis University, a Doctoral degree in Organizational Leadership from Northcentral University, and is completing a Juris Doctorate degree from Syracuse University.

He served on active duty in the Navy until 2015. His tours included division officer onboard the USS Rhode Island SSBN 740 (Gold), instructor at Navy Officer Candidate School, Shift Engineer at Navy Nuclear Prototype Training Unit Charleston, Submarine Group Ten Anti-terrorism/Force Protection Officer, Commanding Officer Navy Operational Support Center Battle Creek, Submarine Force Pacific Fleet Deputy N1, and Commanding Officer Navy Operational Support Center Knoxville. He also completed two deployments in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom.

His awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (2), Joint Service Commendation Medal, Navy/Marine Corps Commendation Medal (3), and the Navy/Marine Corps Achievement Medal (3).

He is married to the former Kasey Carty-Campbell and has seven children: Mackenzie, Chapman, Campbell, Mai, Cooper, Abel, Marietta, and Max. Following retirement from the Navy, Commander Jordan taught Math at Eastside High School where he coached football and baseball. He served as the Senior Naval Science Instructor at Jackson High School for 6 years and was named teacher of the year from 2019-2021. He served as the Area Manager for NJROTC Area 3 in 2021 and was then selected as Area Manager for NJROTC Area 9 in 2023.